

HIERARCHAL TASK ANALYSIS

As with deciding where to sit at when attending a banquet dinner, the decision of the hierarchal structure of the site holds great importance.
Mapping out your goals will allow a smooth transition on your site.

STUDY CONDUCTOR:

Tammy Hotchkiss

HIERARCHAL TASK ANALYSIS

Hierarchal Task and User Analysis: Portfolio Website

Dynamic website is expected to contain 4-5 pages, contain a functional database, and contain functional forms. Images will contain short descriptions about them meeting college application criteria.

- Information about the student
 - resume
 - contact forms
- Aesthetics
 - layout and design will be in accordance with the basic principles of web design
 - site will have interactive functions such as spry accordion and a video
 -
- Audience
 - potential colleges
 - potential employers
- Portfolio materials
 - Websites
 - HTML
 - FLASH
 - Materials
 - Marketing materials
 - posters
 - flyers
 - T-shirt designs
 - Artwork
 - sketches
 - paintings
 - Logo designs
 - customer referrals
 - Database
 - discussion forum type
- Platforms used
 - Dreamweaver
 - WordPress
 - Illustrator
 - Photoshop
 - inDesign
 - Flash

Hierarchal Task Analysis:

