

Success Measurements

- Users can register and log in without errors
- Users are correctly redirected to the customer or vendor dashboard based on their role
- Customers can successfully browse categories and view product listings
- The search bar returns relevant results or helpful feedback when no results are found
- Customers can save items to a wishlist and view them later
- Customers can place an order from start to finish without technical issues
- Customer order history is visible and includes basic order details
- Users can update their profile information (name, email, password) successfully
- Customers can manage their shipping addresses and payment methods from the dashboard
- Vendors can add new product listings that appear in the correct category
- Vendors can view orders placed for their products
- All user actions (save, submit, delete) result in visible feedback or confirmation