

Site Structure for Xiang Herbs Tea

The Xiang Herbs Tea hierarchy provides the structure/architecture of the website. Account will contain the sign in and sign up pages. Once the customer is logged in, they will land on the Home page, where the subscription form will be located at the bottom of the page and confirmation after entering the email. The About section contains the Our Story section, where the customer can learn more about the company and Our Farm, wherever the customer will know the farm's backstory. After the About section, there is the Tea section and it contains a menu of 6 flavors of teas.

The teas are, Black, Blended, Green, Red, White, and Yellow. There are other teas, which are under the Special Teas section, where it includes: Tea of the Month, Limited Edition, and Monthly Assortment. Each of the teas will have a page containing the names of the teas, ratings and can leave reviews, sharing a link of the tea to friends and family, and an add to cart page.

The Shopping Cart includes the summary of the cart. Once the customer is done with their cart, they move on to shipping and billing. Thereafter, the customer can checkout and land on the confirmation page. Finally, the customer can Subscribe and Sign Out.
