

Success Measurements

The measurement for success for this project would be the ability to complete each given task on the task list on the final prototype version of the senior friendly mode feature. Based on the initial interview and observation process, a number of challenges were found when observing the participant performing tasks from the task list. If successful, the participant would be able to complete 100% of all of the tasks given on the task list.